PIRATES SLIP BACKWARDS AS GIANTS SPEED UP AND CAPTURE DOUBLE HEADER

Nationals Draw Nearer to Goufalon — Reds Tounce Brooklyn Handily — Red Sox and Tygers Break Even.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Giants took a double fall out of the Pirates in Pittsburgh yesterday, winning 8 to 4 and 8 to 1, and now need only 4 of the 8 remaining games to clinch the National League pennant and insure the playing of the entire world series in New York.

Cincinnati beat Brooklyn 4 to 3 in an 11 inning battle. The winning run came when Hargrave walked with two out and scored on a triple by Pinelli.

The Red Sox broke even with the Tygers winning the first game 4 to 3 and losing the second 15 to 6.

Grantham of Cubs Makes Good in Majors on His Very First Chance

GEORGE GRANTHAM

(By Billy Evans)
A second Johnny Evers with a little more experience.
An Eddie Collins in the rough, who needs only a few years of big league polish to rival the brilliant second sacker of the White Sox.

Those are just a few of the nice things they are saying about George Grantham, playing his first year at second base for the Chicago Cubs.

Grantham is one of the most talked about players on the much talked about club. Just at present the Chicago Cubs are the sensation of the National League. No player has done more to keep the Cubs in the limelight than Grantham.

If I am not mistaken Grantham was dug up by Jack Doyle, who saw him performing for Omaha in the Western League. Grantham came to the majors as a third sacker.

Started Career at Third
Grantham, as a third sacker in the Western League, made more errors than any other player at that position in the organization. Fifty-seven varieties of bobbles were charged against him. This didn't have the slightest effect on Doyle. Jack figured Grantham would hit in the majors, liked his speed, and when the error question was brought up, Doyle argued that it was a recommendation.

"He goes after everything. That is why he makes a lot of bobs," explained Doyle to Manager Bill Killefer. That was enough for Manager Bill. Grantham was bought.

Is Enjoying Big Year
It is an interesting fact that Grantham is making good at second base rather than third, the position he played in the minors. Second base seems to be his spot. It is also a coincidence that Eddie Collins, premier second baseman, came to the majors as a shortstop and was tried at short, third and the outfield before he found himself at second.

Few players in the history of the game ever had a better first year than Grantham is enjoying. He is going big in every department, and seems destined to wrest from Mar Carey the honor of being the premier base runner in the National League, that has been Carey's for years.

Teammates Join in Denying That McCue Did Not Get Fair Deal—Charges of Favoritism Also Branded as False in Signed Statement.

There are two sides to every question and now comes the side of Coach George Cassidy of the High school football team. Previously Captain McCue had resigned, claiming favoritism. Then "Pat" O'Brien quit and so, also, have McGuire and Deodorian. Charges of favoritism are the basis for these retirements from the squad. Although Mr. Cassidy himself has not been heard from, he evidently not caring to rush into explanations but being satisfied with doing his work as he sees fit, others have come forth with statements which tend to throw a bit different light on the situation.

One prominent alumnus, who claims to have witnessed the episode at the park which resulted in McCue's resigning, claims that Coach Cassidy did not slight McCue. During tackling practice, he says, the coach commended McCue several times for his fine work and even held him up as a model for the others to follow.

McCue Steps Out
On the line-up, however, this spectator says, Cassidy named a team, explaining it was purely tentative, and put three men in the backline who are regarded as fast men. He then asked McCue to go in at end. McCue refused to do this, asked that another man be sent in, and himself went to the sidelines. Later his decision to resign was made.

According to some views, the present backfield men, without going into any comments on the favoritism charges are very fast and fast and are entitled to places as first string backs. Some say that they are superior to Capt. McCue as backfield men. That, however, is merely a matter of opinion expressed and is not being stated as a fact. However, it is argued by this alumnus, with

Helping Jones at Yale

Boston, Sept. 22.—George S. Connors, track coach and trainer at Phillips Exeter Academy for 22 years yesterday accepted an invitation to serve as first assistant to Coach Jones of the Yale football team. This became known here when Jones passed through the city on his way back to New Haven after a conference at Exeter, N. H.

Connors will retain his position on the Exeter faculty, being granted a year's furlough to go to Yale. It is understood that in addition to training the football men he may also coach the track team. Connors assisted Jones when the latter was head coach at Exeter 10 years ago.

First Cut in Harvard Squad

Cambridge, Sept. 22.—The first cut in the Harvard varsity football squad, announced yesterday, left 65 men to the first team roster. R. Keith Kane, 1921 captain, arrived today to take charge of the 10 tackles retained. Secret practice will begin Monday with the first scrimmage probably coming at the end of the week.

Of the 11 quarterbacks on the first squad, nine weighed less than 150 pounds. Eight guards were held for further trial, seven of whom weigh more than 190, four of them tipping the scales at more than 220.

M. A. C. Team
Amherst, Sept. 22.—The M. A. C. coaching staff felt rather dissatisfied with the showing the team made yesterday against the Springfield college aggregation and a long blackboard session was held in the drill hall this morning. Errors of omission and commission were pointed out and players were carefully gone through.

This afternoon's practice took the form of work on fundamentals. In fact, little more than this will be given for another week. No new plays or anything bordering on the intricate will be in order, owing to the ragged work of yesterday.

Shumway was shifted from guard to the center squad.

Punters Needed

Hanover, N. H., Sept. 22.—Dartmouth's football squad was handicapped for the second time in its workout here yesterday. With the field wet and slippery, Coach Hawley took no chances on injuring any of the men and signal practice and a kicking drill featured. The Green is lacking punters this year but Capt. Aschenbach and Hatch, veteran tacklers, showed unusual promise today. The return of Golder, former half-back, is expected.
